All music written and produced by Ian Hawgood. This was recorded at various homes and places in New York, Pennsylvania, Tokyo, London, and trains and locations between in 2008. Vocals on track 14 by my good friend Brian Talkington. Thanks to friends in Pennsylvania for letting me use the pump organ, twisted pianos and dusty guitars, to urban, suburban and rural Japan for letting me record her wonderful sounds, to Brian and Kumiko and our time together in their New York apartment, to my mum and dad for making me learn piano aged four then letting me quit aged eleven, to Wataru for our field recording and gyoza eating sessions in Sugamo and Harajuku, to Sven Swift, Jeremy Bible and Christian Roth for their constant support, and finally to all the people who have inspired me over the years. Special thanks to Urban9 for the beautiful artwork and Akane for checking the Japanese.
